Styling: Neutral clothes, modern spaces, lifestyle moments (city streets, wellness routines, coze homes, real moments).

Rationale for No Faces:

Inclusivity: By avoiding specific faces, the imagery invites everyone to see themselves in the brand.

Authenticity: Keeps focus on lifestyle and experience, not posed.

Trend-forward: Aligns with modern design and fashion aesthetics that favour anonymity and mood.

Consistency: Builds a distinct, recognizable style that feels intentional, minimal and elevated.

Liivv Messaging

How we speak is as important as what we do. Our Liivv voice should be confident but friendly. Conversational. Modern slang is okay if light (don't overdo it!).

Core Pillars of Voice:

- Clear over clever – Simple first, but playful where it fits.
- Inclusive always – Speak to everyone, don't single people out
- Science with style – Accessible language that doesn't feel like med-speak

Examples:

- "No quick fixes. Just real progress."
- "Health, simplified."
- "Prescription for living."
- "Wellness that works IRL."
- "No shame. Just health."

The Logo in the making

The two dots above the “ii” in Liivv are intentional design elements. They represent duality and balance - mind and body, science and lifestyle, care and independence. They also symbolize people: standing side by side, connected in the community, support, and shared journey toward wellness. The subtle detail reinforces that Liiv is about more than just health - it’s about living fully, together.

the leaf represents more than growth - it’s about nurturing potential. Just as a leaf draws energy from the sun to thrive, our brand helps people draw strength, support, and guidance to live fully.

the Liiv logo is intentionally designed to be open to personal interpretation. For some it reflects a person reaching upward toward their fullest health and wellness goals. For others, it evoke the image of a plan with a sun, symbolizing life being nurtured, supported, and encouraged to grow. Both interpretations embody the essence of Liivv: vitality, blance, and the journey to live fully.

lthe wave in the design originates from Bayshore, and the two waves from our Diabetes Express logo symbolizing continuity and connection to our foundation while flowing into a new modern identity.

lthe circle or sun is meant to represent HelioMed - our overarching brand

Because wellness isn't one-size-fits-all.
